

One Little Song By Gillian Welch (2003)

G

There's gotta be a song left to sing

D

Cause everybody can't have thought of everything

Am

One little song that ain't been sung

Am7

G

D7

One little rag that ain't been rung out completely yet - got a little left

=====CHORUS=====

C

Bm

One little drop of falling rain, one little chance to try again

C

G

One little bird that makes it home every now and then

C

Bm

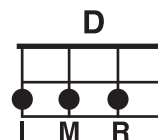

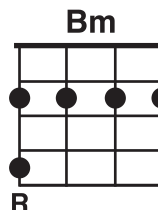

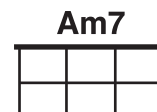

One little piece of endless sky, one little taste of cherry pie

C

D7

One little week in paradise, and I start thinkin'

=====

G

There's gotta to be a song left to sing

G

D

Cause everybody can't have thought of everything

Am

One little note that ain't been used

Am7

G

D7

One little word that ain't been abused a thousand times in a thousand rhymes

CHORUS

There's gotta be a song left to sing

D

Cause everybody can't have thought of everything

Am

One little song that ain't been sung

Am7

G

D7

G

One little rag that ain't been rung out completely yet, til there's nothing left...
