

San Diego Serenade — by Tom Waits - 1974

C                    E7                    Am                    F
 I never saw the morning 'til I stayed up all night
C                    G                    C                    Am
 I never saw the sunshine 'til you turned out the light
F                    G                    C                    Am
 I never saw my hometown until I stayed away too long
F                    G                    F    G    C
 I never heard the melody, until I needed a song. F// G/ C/// (2x)

C                    E7                    Am                    F
 I never saw the white line, 'til I was leaving you behind
C                    G                    C                    Am
 I never knew I needed you 'til I was caught up in a bind
F                    G                    C                    Am
 I never spoke 'I love you' 'til I cursed you in vain,
F                    G                    F                    G    C
 I never felt my heartstrings, until I nearly went insane. F// G/ C/// (2x)

C                    E7                    Am                    F
 I never saw the East Coast 'til I moved to the west
C                    G                    C                    Am
 I never saw the moonlight until it shone off of your breast
F                    G                    C                    Am
 I never saw your heart 'til someone tried to steal it away
F                    G                    F                    G    C
 I never saw your tears, 'til they rolled down your face. F// G/ C/// (2x)
