Back Home Again - John Denver (1974)

G7 C There's a storm across the valley, clouds are rolling in; D7 the afternoon is heavy on your shoulders G7 There's a truck out on the four lane, a mile or more away; D7 the whining of his wheels just makes it colder G G7 He's an hour away from riding, on your prayers up in the sky; and ten days on the road are barely gone G7 There's a fire softly burning, supper's on the stove; but it's the light in your eyes that makes him warm D7 G7 C Hey, its good to be back home again D7 Sometimes, this old farm, feels like a long lost friend, D7 yes, and hey it's good to be back home again G7 There's all the news to tell him, how'd you spend your time; D7 and what's the latest thing the neighbors say? G7 And your mother called last Friday, sunshine made her cry; and you felt the baby move just yesterday D7 G7

                 D7
                                G
                                    G7
Hey, its good to be back home again (yes, it is)
           D7
Sometimes, this old farm, feels like a long lost friend,
yes, and hey it's good to be back home again
                      D7
And oh, the time that I can lay this tired old body down and feel your fingers feather soft upon me
                  D7
The kisses that I live for, the love that lights my way
the happiness that living with you brings me
                           G7
It's the sweetest thing I know of, just spending time with you;
         D7
it's the little things that make a house a home
       G
                   G7
Like a fire softly burning, and supper on the stove;
and the light in your eyes that makes me warm

                                    G7
Hey, its good to be back home again
           D7
Sometimes, this old farm, feels like a long lost friend,
         D7
yes, and hey it's good to be back home again
                 D7
